Garden State C.O.P.S., is a New Jersey Chapter of the national organization Concerns of Police Survivors, Inc. (C.O.P.S.). Our main goal is to provide resources to assist in the rebuilding of the lives of surviving families and co-workers of law enforcement officers killed in the line-of-duty. C.O.P.S. minister to survivors' needs by extending a helping hand to stabilize their emotional, financial, and legal well-being. Others suffering the same loss can be of service to new survivors during their periods of helplessness. Furthermore, C.O.P.S. provides training to law enforcement agencies on survivor victimization issues and educates the public of the need to support the law enforcement profession and its survivors.

The term "survivors" refers to the family, significant others, and co-workers that are left behind when a police officer is killed in the line-of-duty. These are the members of C.O.P.S..

Garden State C.O.P.S. is a nationwide non-profit 501(c)(3) organization providing resources to assist in the rebuilding of the lives of survivors of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty as determined by Federal government criteria.
